JESSE R. ESKRIDGE ADVOCATES ROOSEVELT

Gives Out Statement Embodying His Reasons For Wanting The Man He Thinks Is Best For President-Taft Can Not Carry Ohio.

SAYS TEDDY CAN WIN.

Hardinsburg, Dec. 18.—(Special.)—Jesse R. Eskridge today gave out a statement, embodying his reasons for advocating the nomination of Col. Roosevelt for president in 1912. He said: "Col. Roosevelt is not a candidate for the nomination, nor will he be. The advocates of his nomination are not concerned about whether he does or does not make an announcement.

It is their ardent hope that his sincere patriotism will not permit him to ignore the call of the masses of his party to assume party leadership again.

It is apparent to careful readers and observers, that conditions in the Republican party are not as they should be, nor as they formerly were. The party is not in harmony on great questions and important issues. There is much dissatisfaction throughout the country with the present administration, and for more than one reason. It is not satisfactory to conservative Republicans, progressives or insurgents.

Chairman Barnes of the New York Republican State Committee says in substance, that the policy of the Administration respecting Trusts, is ruinous to business interests.

Chairman Brown of the Ohio State Committee, says that President Taft cannot carry Ohio. Chairman Lea, of the Indiana State Committee, says the same, and that the fight is lost in advance, if Taft be renominated. These are important and pivotal states from a Republican standpoint.

The striking feature of the proposed nomination of Col. Roosevelt, is that it gets its encouragement and support from popular sentiment. No political machine or organization is back of it. He will not be nominated by office holders, or machine politicians, but in spite of them.

His candidacy would be acceptable to progressives and conservatives alike. He is the original Progressive and Conservatives and Stannpatters do not fear him.

He possesses the greatest executive and constructive ability of any statesman of the age. He is a master in the financial world, and big business interests recognize him as such. Briefly summing up, we find grave fears exist among well informed Republicans, as to the availability of President Taft. It seems to be conceded that if the Democrats do not lose their heads in Congress, their prospects of victory next year are brighter than they have been for twenty years.

The indications are, however, that if Col. Roosevelt is nominated by the Republicans, he cannot be beaten.

It appears, therefore, that the duty of every Republican is so clear and the way so plain that a "wayfarer man, though a fool, cannot err therein."

Mr. Lewis Highly Pleased With His Advertising.

Dear Mr. Babbage: You will please for this week continue my ad as it is. I must thank and compliment you upon the splendid ad you have gotten up for me. It's display and arrangement is simply first-class. Cannot see how it can be bettered. Again thanking you and wishing you and the News a splendid Christmas. Ever your friend, T. C. Lewis, Hardinsburg.

Was Here Last Year

A little boy who was a stranger to the Sunday-school teacher, last Sunday was asked at Sunday-school if he was ever at Sunday-school before. He answered "No." Then he added quickly: "Oh, yes, I was here last Christmas!" Everybody who has not been to Sunday school for a year is invited to come Sunday and get ready to start the new year right. Santa Claus will be there to greet you.

RAYMOND

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Avitt, of Lodi, spent Sunday with their daughter, Mr. Henry Cashman and family.

Proctor and Austin Knott were in Brandenburg last week.

Andrew Driskell, Superintendent, visited here last week and made a very interesting talk at the school.

Henry Cashman has presented his children a new organ. They are taking music lessons under the instructions of Miss Aliene Biddle.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolan Hardesty and baby, and Mrs. Prather spent Sunday at Mr. Thomas Hall's.

Proctor Knott and family contemplate moving to Missouri in the near future.

A few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cashman Saturday night to enjoy the music. W. B. Argabright, of Lodi, and Roscoe Hendry, played the violins and Mrs. Otis Stiff and Miss Edyth Knott playing the organ and guitar.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrease Knott and baby, visited Mr. and Mrs. James Stiff near Union Star Sunday.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

LAHANT.

Farmers are busy shucking and shredding corn.

Mrs. Edna Hylton was called to Virginia to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Baling, who is ill of consumption.

Mrs. Belle Kallman has returned from Louisville, where she has been the guest of her niece, Mrs. A. M. Vessells.

Miss Nettie Hylton and Allen Lewis were quietly married at the home of her brother, H. Hylton.

Marion Hardesty has lately painted his house.

Mrs. Emma Noble has returned from Owensboro, where she visited her sister and brother.

Mr. Driskell called at the Pleasant Valley School Thursday.

Mrs. Lula Shellman is able to be up again after a light attack of typhoid fever.

CASE AFTER CASE

Plenty More Like This In Cloverport.

Scores of Cloverport people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

J. C. Weatherholt, High St., Cloverport, Ky., says: "Two years ago I did not think it possible that I could ever be well again. In fact, I had settled up my affairs. I cannot describe the misery I endured from pains through my back and whenever I stooped, they became so sharp that it really felt as if someone were thrusting a knife into my kidneys. I was often very dizzy, dark spots floated before my eyes, and I had to grasp something to keep from falling. My joints became swollen to twice their natural size and I lost weight rapidly until I was a skeleton. The doctors' medicines or the many guaranteed cures that I tried did not help me and finally it was my good fortune to hear about Doan's Kidney Pills. I immediately procured a supply at Fisher's Drug Store and I was greatly surprised at the results received. Before I had taken the contents of the second box, there was a marked improvement and I continued using them until I was completely cured. I am now as well as any man in this county and I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

New Officers.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, held their last meeting of the conference year Monday afternoon. They report a splendid year's work and greater interest among the members. The following officers were elected: Mrs. V. G. Babbage, president; Mrs. F. M. Smith, first vice president; Mrs. Shelby Conrad, second vice president; Mrs. James Payne, receiving secretary; Mrs. Wickliffe DeHaven, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. W. Moorman, treasurer.

Every family has need of a good, reliable liniment. For sprains, bruises, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains there is none better than Chamberlain's. Sold by all dealers.

Interested In The Story.

Dear Mr. Babbage:—Beginning with this week's copy, please change my paper from Oneida, Ills., to 411 West B., Ave., Hutchinson, Kansas. I could not do without the good old News. It is better than a letter from my old home town, as I get news from it from all over the county, concerning many of my old friends. I am greatly interested in your continued story, so please send me last week's copy, which I failed to get. Wishing you and The News success. I am yours truly, Warfield Miller.

All the good qualities of Ely's Cream Balm, solid, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. That it is a wonderful remedy

More Than A Letter.

Dear Mr. Babbage: Inclosed please find $1.00 for which mark me up to Dec. 15, 1912, as I do not want to miss the dear old News, as it is more than a letter to us. Wishing you and all friends a happy Xmas and a prosperous New Year. Yours truly, Mrs. J. E. Couty, Nickerson, Kans.

Laid To Rest Under The American Flag.

The body of Will Farber arrived in this city last Wednesday and the funeral was held from his home. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Frank Lewis. Mr. Farber's death was not unexpected. He had been ill in the army hospital in Monterey, Cal., for several weeks and the family were notified of his illness. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Russell Hawkins, of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Kate Ditzendough, and three brothers, Addison, John and George Farber.

"My child was burned terribly about the face, neck and chest. I applied Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. The pain ceased and the child sank into a restful sleep." —Mrs. Nancy M. Hanson, Hamburg, N. Y.

Wants His Child

A case that is attracting some attention in the neighborhood of Addison is a writ of habeas corpus proceedings by the father, C. C. Kennedy, for the possession of his child, now in the possession of Mrs. Sarah McCoy, the grandmother. Mrs. McCoy claims the right to keep the child and care for it by request of its deceased mother. Several witnesses have been summoned in the case, which has been set for trial before Judge Waggoner at Hardinsburg next Thursday. Henry Moorman and V. G. Babbage are the attorneys.

Police Court

The civil term of the Cloverport Police Court meets the first Monday in each month, having a civil jurisdiction of all collections on notes, accounts, attachment and garnishee proceedings, running from $1.00 to $100.00.—V. G. Babbage, Judge.

Paper Bag Cookery

By MARGARET H. HAGGART, Colorado Agricultural College

The paper-bag cookery which has been the rage all over England for sometime, has reached the United States and is taking the country by storm. These bags were perfected by M. Soyer, a French chef, who experimented until he found a bag suitable in texture and strength, and without any disagreeable features attendant upon the use of the ordinary paper bag.

These bags come in all sizes to suit different quantities of food. The bag is slightly greased on the inside and the meat and vegetables put in. Sufficient water to prevent burning or dryness is added unless one wishes a large amount of liquid to serve with the dish. The bag is then carefully sealed by folding the mouth over two or three times and fastened with paper clips. It is then laid on the grid or a wire rack on the floor of the oven. The oven must have only moderate heat to insure best results. M. Soyer has carefully worked out a time table for different meats and vegetables. In serving, the bag is drawn carefully on the plate and then ripped open and discarded.

The claim made for these bags is that they not only do away with washing of greasy pans, but cooking in them preserves the natural flavor of the food. In vegetable cookery this would mean a gain, as the valuable mineral matter which vegetables contain is thrown away in the stock.

We are now undertaking some experiments in our cooking laboratory with these bags, and shall have a further report to make later.

A Christmas Warning to Buyers of Jewelry Gifts!

It is Necessary to Know What Jewelry Is.

One has to be educated in its make-up and quality of the gold and silver, to appreciate it. No one can intelligently know a good or inferior article without a jeweler's education. To sell jewelry is only the part of a salesman. To understand and know what a piece of jewelry is, means another thing.

Impossible it Is for a man behind the counter selling jewelry, who has never been a jeweler or silver and gold worker, to tell a customer what he is getting in jewelry. Be not deceived, and take the risk in losing your money in CHEAP, GLITTERING, ARTICLES. Beautiful Jewelry is appreciated more than anything at Christmas. Handsome silver is what everybody wants. Do not let any one persuade you to get anything but the best.

Go to a Man of Experience

YOUR HOME JEWELER. You know him. His goods you can risk. He takes pride in telling and showing his customers that they are getting value for their money. He delights in providing you with just what you want. He makes special orders. All his goods are HAND ENGRAVED. You can depend on your home jeweler to take an interest in you.

A Visit to The Store of T. C. Lewis

Will satisfy and you need not go elsewhere. Christmas Jewelry is a lifetime present and wins a place of love forever in the heart of the recipient. For anything in first-class Jewelry you can get it at T. C. Lewis'. Come and see for yourself. Ever Your Jeweler,

THE CHRISTMAS LETTERS

Raymond C. Mattingly in his letter to Santa Claus says he is "Papa's little Democrat." We hope he will be president some good day. Democrats are mighty scarce in that neighborhood.

George Dono Lyddan, of Irvington, in his letter to Santa, says he wants a barn and some stock. He is a youngster after our own heart. If "Dad" Lyddan don't furnish this boy with a barn and all the stock he wants, he won't be treating this boy right. It's rare in this day and time to find a boy on the farm with an ambition so high.

Merry Christmas to you all!

LITTLE STORIES WRITTEN WHILE THE PRESS THUNDERS BY LOUISE

Come, you who read the little stories of 'Press Thunder'! Let's get a card and send to the one whose Christmas is sure to bring a note of sadness and regret.

Santa Claus never forgets the very poor. Friends lovingly sympathize with the grief-stricken. But the poor victim of sin! The man who has made a terrible mistake. The woman who has acted imprudently. These wretched, miserable creatures whom the world will not quickly forgive, let's remember them and try, as best we can, to gladden their sick hearts.

And then, we shall have fulfilled the Christmas message!

IRVINGTON

Mrs. L. B. Moreman was in New Albany last week, the guest of Mrs. Jas. A. Crawford.

Mrs. J. C. Mattingly, who has been the guest of Mrs. Robert C. Cider, has returned to Glen Dean.

Christmas services at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock. Special and appropriate music will be rendered by choir. Pastor will preach on "The Advent" being the 2nd in the series of sermons on the Life and Character of Jesus.

E. H. Shelman & Co's depositors have the greatest protection of any bank in the State. Capital and Surplus $30,000.00.

Rufus Cain and Milton Hardaway left last week for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. Nannie Robertson, who has been visiting Mrs. Albert Ashcraft, has gone back to Gaston.

Willie Lewis, of Owensboro, who has been the guest of Mrs. Kate Bennett, has returned home.

Deposit your money in a bank like E. H. Shelman & Co's, where the stock is worth $2.00. It is much safer than the Bank's stock that sells for less than $1.00.

Mrs. Albert Ashcraft is at home after several days spent in Frankfort with her sister, Mrs. Keagin.

Jess Clarkson, of Big Spring, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jno R. Wimp last week.

The Sunbeam Society, of the Baptist church, is conducting a very successful doll bazaar today and will continue for two days longer.

You will make no mistake to open an account with E. H. Shelman & Co., a bank that has less expense and 100% more surplus than any bank in the county.

Mrs. F. H. McGeehee was given a surprise dinner last Monday at her home in honor of her birth-day anniversary. Covers were laid for relatives.

Walter Joseph Figgott, Jr., and J. O. Cunningham, who are attending the State College at Lexington, will be home Christmas.

Shelman & Co's selection of watches, diamonds and jewelry will please the most fastidious.

The Christmas Bazaar given on last Friday and Saturday by the ladies of the Methodist church, was quite a success. The proceeds will be used by the ladies for a local cause.

Miss L. Ada Drury, of Louisville, arrives next Saturday to spend Christmas with Mrs. R. B. McGlothlin and Miss Willa J. Drury.

Select a present for your friends at Shelman & Co's. No charge for engraving.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hawes and little daughter, Ethel Louise, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hawes, in Owensboro, returned yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trent have returned to Custer after a short visit to relatives here.

Reduced prices on everything for the next week at McGlothlin & Son's.

Shelman & Co. will sell an Elgin or Waltham watch for $4.50; Rogers 1847 knives and forks, $5.

50; Rogers 1847 table spoons, $3.00; Rogers tea spoons, $1.50.

Mrs. David Fitz is in Louisville. Mrs. Sally Moorman, of Cloverport, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Hook Sunday.

There will be Union Christmas services at the Methodist church on Sunday evening. The Rev. Chas. R. Shepherd, of Louisville, will preach. The choir, with Mrs. W. J. Piggott at the organ, will render some excellent music.

Mail orders receive prompt attention at Shelman & Co's. Goods exchanged if not satisfactory.

Mrs. G. L. Brady is in Louisville the guest of Mrs. Tony McCoy.

Mrs. J. J. Tilford after being the guest of Mrs. Clarence DeWeese in Fordsville, returned home Tuesday.

Consult T. N. McGlothlin for subscriptions to Courier-Journal, Times, Post, Herald, Farmers Home Journal, Stock Yard Journal, Western Recorder and Breckenridge News.

Miss Emma Lon Moorman, of Glen Dean, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cider.

Miss Maggie Bandy was in Louisville Saturday.

Shelman & Co are prepared to accurately test and fit your eyes. Lenses ground to fit the most complicated case. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The Rayo Lamp

It Never Flickers

The long winter evenings give a woman a splendid chance for sewing or embroidery; but her eyes suffer from the strain unless she has a good light.

The Rayo is the best lamp made.

It gives a strong, diffused light that is remarkably easy to the eyes. There is no glare to it; no flicker. It lights up a whole room.

The Rayo is an economical lamp, too.

You get the most possible light-value for the oil burned; and the Rayo itself is a low-priced lamp. Yet it is a handsome lamp—an ornament to any room in the house. The Rayo Lamp is easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Made of solid brass, nickel-plated; also in numerous other styles and finishes.

Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the Mrs. Allen Pate and three year old son, Virgil, of near town, visited the News office last week. The little man was anxious to see the paper printed.

Sam Morgan, the efficient agent for the Henderson Route at The Falls, has left with his wife and baby for a two weeks' visit and hunt in Arkansas.

CHAPTER X.

A MESSAGE FROM BOUCHER.

SHeldon became aware that she was speaking. "I beg pardon," he said. "What's that you were saying?"

"You weren't listening to a word, I knew it," she chided. "I was saying that the condition of the Philiberty Gibbet was disgraceful, and that tomorrow, when you've told the skipper and not hurt his feelings I am going to take my men out and give her an overhauling. We'll scrub her bottom too. Why, there's whiskers on her copper four inches long. I saw it when she rolled. Don't forget, I'm going cruising on the Philiberty some day, even if I have to run away with her."

While at their coffee on the veranda Satan raised a commotion in the compound near the beach gate, and Sheldon hastily resumed a muffled and frightened black and dragged him on the porch for interrogation.

The black drew a scrap of newspaper from under his belt and passed it over. Sheldon scanned it hurriedly. "It's from Boucher," he explained. "The fellow who took Packard's place. Packard was the one I told you about who was killed by his boat's crew. He says that Port Adams crowd is out-fifty of them, in big canoes—and camping on his beach. They've killed half a dozen of his pigs already and seem to be looking for trouble. And he's afraid they may connect with the fifteen runaways from Lunga."

"In which case?" she queried. "In which case Billy Page will be compelled to send Boucher's successor. It's Page's station, you know. I wish I knew what to do. I don't like to leave you here alone."

"Take me along, then." He smiled and shook his head. "Then you'd better take my men along," she advised. "They're good shots, and they're not afraid of anything—except Utami, and he's afraid of ghosts."

The big bell was rung, and fifty black boys carried the whaleboat down to the water. The regular boat's crew manned her, and Matarone and three other Tahitians, belted with cartridges and armed with rifles, sat in the stern sheets, where Sheldon stood at the steering oar.

"My, I wish I could go with you," Joan said wistfully as the boat shoved off.

"I'm as good as a man," she urged. "You really are needed here," he replied. "There's that Lunga crowd; they might reach the coast right here and, with both of us absent, rush the plantation. Goodby. We'll get back in the morning some time. It's only twelve miles."

When Joan started to return to the house she was compelled to pass among the boat carriers, and one of them stepped up to her. In the darkness she could not make him out.

"What name?" she asked sharply. "What name belong you?"

"Me Aroa," he said. She remembered him as one of the two sick boys she had nursed in the hospital. The other one had died.

"Me take 'in plenty fella medicine too much," Aroa was saying. "Well, and you all right now," she answered.

"Me want 'in tobacco, plenty fella tobacco; me want 'in coffee, me want 'in porpoise teeth; me want 'in one fella belt."

She looked at him humorously, expecting to see a smile, or at least a grin, on his face. The rest of the boys had crowded up at his back in a solid wall. Some one of them giggled, but the remainder regarded her in morose and intent silence.

"Well?" she asked. "What for you want plenty fella things?"

"Me take 'in medicine," quoth Aroa. "You pay me."

"You go among quarters," she said, starting to turn on her heel to enter the gate.

"You pay me," said the boy. "Aroa, you all the same one big fool. I no pay you. Now you go."

But the black was unmoved. She felt that he was regarding her almost insolently as he repeated:

"I take 'in medicine. You pay me. You pay me now."

"Then it was that she lost her temper and cuffed his ears so soundly as to drive him back among his fellows. But they did not break up. Another boy stepped forward.

"Me Gogoomy," he said. "Bawo brother belong me."

Bawo, she remembered, was the sick boy who had died.

"Go on," she commanded. "Bawo take 'in medicine. Bawo no wish. Bawo my brother. You pay me. Father belong me one big fella chief along Port Adams. You pay me."

Joan laughed.

"Gogoomy, you just the same as writes Mrs. L. R. Barker, of Bud, Ky., "and can do all my housework. For years I suffered with such pains, I could scarcely stand on my feet. After three different doctors had failed to help me, I gave Cardui a trial. Now, I feel like a new woman."

"I Am Well"

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

A woman's health depends so much upon her delicate organs, that the least trouble there affects her whole system. It is the little things that count, in a woman's life and health. If you suffer from any of the aches and pains, due to womanly weakness, take Cardui at once, and avoid more serious troubles. We urge you to try it. Begin today.

"WHAT NAME YOU WALK ABOUT THIS PLACE?"

valing toward him. It was said at the hip by a man in the second row.

"What name you?" Sheldon suddenly shouted, pointing directly at the man who held the gun.

Sheldon still held the whip hand, and he intended to keep it.

"Clear out, all you fella boys!" he ordered. "Clear out and walk along salt water. Savee!"

"Me talk," spoke up a fat and filthy savage, whose hairy chest was caked with the unwashed dirt of years.

"Oh, is that you, Telepass?" the white man queried genially. "You tell 'in boys clear out, and you stop and talk along me."

"Him good fella boy," was the reply. "Him stop along."

"Well, what do you want?" Sheldon asked, striving to hide under assumed carelessness the weakness of conceit.

"That fella boy belong along me," the old chief pointed out Gogoomy, whom Sheldon recognized.

"White Mary belong you too much no good," Telepass went on. "Bang 'in head belong Gogoomy. Gogoomy, all the same chief. Hime by me finish. Gogoomy big fella chief. White Mary bang 'in head. No good. You pay me plenty tobacco, plenty powder, plenty calico."

"You old scoundrel," was Sheldon's comment. An hour before he had been chuckling over Joan's recital of the episode, and here, an hour later, was Telepass himself come to collect damages.

"Gogoomy," Sheldon ordered, "what name you walk about here? You get along quarters plenty quick."

"Me stop," was the defiant answer. "White Mary belong you bang 'in head," old Telepass began again. "My word, plenty big fella trouble you no pay."

"You talk along boys," Sheldon said, with increasing irritation. "You tell 'in get to h— along beach. Then I talk with you."

Sheldon felt a slight vibration of the veranda and knew that Joan had come out and was standing by his side. But he did not dare glance at her. There were too many rifles down below there, and rifles had a way of going off from the hip.

Again the veranda vibrated with her moving weight, and he knew that Joan had gone into the house. A minute later she was back beside him. He had never seen her smoke, and it struck him as peculiar that she should be smoking now. Then he guessed the reason. With a quick glance he noted the hand at her side and in it the familiar paper wrapped dynamite. He noted also the end of fuse, split properly, into which had been inserted the head of a wax match.

"Telepass, you old reprobate, tell 'in boys clear out along beach. My word, I no common along you."

"Me no common," said the chief. "Me want 'in my white Mary bang 'in head belong Gogoomy."

"I'll come down there and bang 'in head belong you," Sheldon replied, leaning toward the railing as if about to leap over.

An angry murmur arose, and the blacks surged restlessly. The muzzles of many guns were rising from the hips. Joan was pressing the lighted end of the cigarette to the fuse. A Sudder went off with the roar of a bomb gun, and Sheldon heard a pane of window glass crash behind him. At the same moment Joan flung the dynamite, the fuse hissing and spluttering. Into the thick of the blacks, they scattered back in too great haste to do any more shooting. Satan, aroused by the one shot, was snarling and panting to be let out. Joan heard and ran to let him out, and thereat the tragedy was averted and the comedy began.

Titles and spurs were dropped or flung aside in a wild scramble for the protection of the coconut palms. Satan mutilated himself. Never had he been free to tear and rend such a quantity of black flesh before, and he bit and snarled and rushed the flying legs till the last pair were above his head.

"I fancy you need a lesson or two in inserting fuses," Sheldon remarked dryly.

Joan's eyes were scornful. "There was no detonator on it," she said. "Besides, the detonator is yet unmanufactured that will explode that charge. It's only a bottle of chlorodyne."

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I finally believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.

THE COUNTY UNIT: PASS IT AND GET IT OUT OF THE WAY

The News was the first paper in the State to urge the Democratic State Convention to declare for the extension of the County Unit. We did so from two reasons: first, because we knew there was a tremendous sentiment in the State demanding it as a Constitutional right; second because we knew its acceptance would put it out of the campaign and force the fight between the parties on other matters, where the Democratic party would necessarily gain votes. Its adoption by the Convention was what caused that thirty odd thousand majority for McCreary. If it had not been adopted the Democratic party would have been forced to make a defensive campaign against the charge that it was the "whiskey party," and the returns would have told a different story on the night of the seventh of November. We could have had everything in the Democratic platform that was in it and left out the County Unit and there would have been an uphill fight from the start, and a doubtful result in the end.

We merely recite these facts to point out the necessity of the Democratic Legislature redeeming its pledge to the people by passing the law. It is not only a bounden public duty to carry out a pledge to the people, but it is a proper return for the victory we won on account of it. It has been a "plague on both our houses" ever since it made its appearance to politics. It cost the Democrats the State election four years ago and elected a Republican United States Senator by a Democratic Legislature. It ought to be gotten out of the way, lest it continues to do more harm and the only way to dispose of it is to pass it. It cannot be defeated except by tremendous efforts upon the part of the liquor interests and it will cost them dearly if they undertake to do it. The people are not going to submit to the domination of any interest. If they are wise they will let this bill pass, for it will then mean the end of all legislation on the subject in Kentucky. — E'town News.

Don't be a Tumbledown Farm Journal

MANY a farmer will tell you he never knew how much bigger crops he could raise until FARM JOURNAL put it into his head to work more with his brains.

This great little paper is always nudging farmers up to make more money. Pleasant but persistent, it works at you year after year to raise larger crops, fatter horses and cows, heavier hogs, bigger apples and potatoes, and shows you just HOW to do it.

FARM JOURNAL ("cream, not skim-milk") is 34 years old, and has over 750,000 subscribers, more than any other farm paper published. Its four million readers (known as "Our Folks") are the most intelligent and prosperous country people in the world, and are always saying FARM JOURNAL helped to make them so. It is clean, brief, "boiled down," full of practical wisdom, fun and sunshine. It believes in order, thrift, kindness, comfort, and happiness, and it has old Peter Tumbledown always ready to show how NOT to run a farm.

"Our Folks" have comfortable homes, modern buildings and machinery, tight roofs and fences, gates that swing free, sound horses, well-dressed and happy wives and children, and money in bank. Their potatoes are the largest, their milk tests the highest, their hogs weigh most, their fruit brings the best prices. Live farmers everywhere find this out, and they want the FARM JOURNAL.

Subscribe now, and get with the paper any of these famous Money-making Secrets.

These great illustrated booklets are all stories of success in farming, and they tell you the METHODS that won it.

Poultry Secrets is a unique collection of the secret methods and discoveries of successful poultrymen. It gives Felch's famous mating chart, suppressed for years, the Currier method of securing 50 per cent. more pullets than cockerels, Hoyer's method of insuring fertility, with priceless secrets of mating, breeding, feed and feeding, how to produce winter eggs, and many others of great value long jealously guarded, now first published.

Horse Secrets exposes the methods of "bishopsing," "plugging," cocaine and gasoline doping, and other tricks of "cyns" and swindlers. It enables any one to tell an unsound horse. It also gives many valuable leading, training, breeding and veterinary secrets.

Corn Secrets is the great NEW hand-book of Prof. Holden, the "Corn King." It tells how to get ten to twenty bushels more per acre than is rich in protein and other valuable stock feeding elements. Wonderful photographic pictures make every process plain.

THE MILLION EGG-FARM tells how J. M. Foster, in the New Jersey pine-belt, makes over $18,000 a year, mainly from eggs. It you keep chickens, read about the "Rancocas Unit" and learn how Foster FEEDS his hens.

THE "BUTTER BOOK" tells of seven cows that produced half a ton of butter each per year (140 pounds is the average). An eye-opener for dairymen. Get it, weed out your poor cows, and turn your good ones into record-breakers.

GARDEN GOLD shows how to make your back-yard supply you with fresh vegetables and fruit, how to cut down your grocery bills, and get cash for your surplus produce. It tells when and how to plant, cultivate, harvest and market every kind.

DUCK DOLLARS tells of the great Weber duck-farm near Boston. Every year they sell over 40,000 ducklings at a net profit of 50 cents each. Tells why ducks pay them better than chickens, and just HOW they do everything.

Any one of these splendid booklets, with Farm Journal FOUR full years, both for $1.00

(And if you subscribe NOW, before they are all gone, and tell us where you saw this offer, we will send you also Poor Richard Revived, Franklin's great almanac, brought down to 1912, packed with wit and wisdom for the farmer.)

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Rivington, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

DIAMOND EDGE KNIVES

Not too big—not too little—but made to stand the demands of the average man.

Every part is so carefully fitted together that any blade opens easily with the thumb nail.

They are sharp—very sharp—when you buy them. They hold an edge and satisfy.
You are always proud of your DIAMOND EDGE Knife.

DIAMOND EDGE PRESS BUTTON SAFETY KNIFE

This knife opens by merely pressing the button and is locked by pushing another button. Locks

when open, locks when closed. It is the newest thing in classy pocket knives. The blades are made of the best Firth Steel, nothing better.
A knife that appeals to every man who desires the best quality, best finish and the newest in pocket knives. That they are branded Diamond Edge, guarantees the quality in every sense, for

DIAMOND EDGE CUTLERY

DIAMOND EDGE slicing knives, carvers, butcher knives, table knives, steels and all sorts of cutlery are better than usual, because they not only have intrinsic value, but have a style value. There is a style in cutlery as in everything else.

The new slicing knife, the new fruit knife, the new boning knife and other cutlery of this nature shows that there is continual improvement, and every new improvement will be found in the DIAMOND EDGE line.

Make Somebody Happy With a Kodak

If father only knew how much I wanted a Kodak.

BROWNIE

Home memories that are cherished most are those of the great home day—Christmas. Better than mere memory thought, is the pictured story of the family reunion; the happy children, the gay young folks—the grown-up boys and girls back home again. The pictures taken with the Christmas Kodak will give pleasure the whole year round and for all the years to come. Brownies $1.00 to $10—Kodaks $5 to $50

There is everything for Kodakery at our store
